

BEST workshop #3 - 2018:

Demand responsive services and how to develop public transport services for sparsely populated areas

Oslo, 8th of November 2018

Topic:	How to develop more flexible and customer-oriented products and solutions for the future? The workshop will focus on how to develop transport services at times and places where demand is not sufficient for a traditional public transport offer.
Target group:	People working with any aspect related to developing demand responsive transport services.
About BEST workshops:	The BEST workshops are an opportunity for public transport professionals with hands on experience to discuss a topic of common interest. All participating organisations must make a presentation relevant to the topic. Normally between 10 and 20 people attend. The BEST workshops are free and open to all public transport authorities (PTA's).
8:30	9:00	Coffee and Tea, refreshments
9:00	9:15	Welcome to Oslo and short intro to how Ruter are developing demand responsive transport services. Claes Kanold, Ruter As
9:15	9:45	External presenter (tbd): The role of Uber and/or presentation of a new transport service from a local operator, presenters tba
9:45	10:30	City presentation Oslo: Presentations of two pilot projects, the purpose/goal, and what we learned from them: Project 1: Elderly friendly door-to-door transport. The elderly is picked up at home and taken to a destination of their choice in the neighbourhood. The trip must be ordered at least 1 hour before departure. Claes Kanold, Ruter As Project 2: Organising transport to leisure activities for children. The children are picked up at school and taken to the leisure activity. When the activity ends, they are taken home. Claes Kanold, Ruter As
10:30	10:45	Break

10:45	11:30	Nordjyllands Trafikselskab: Mobility is about bringing people together Plustur: «Plustur» is a demand responsive service that can be used when the bus or the train is not able to provide a service from A to B. "Plustur" will always link the traveller with the existing public transport service. Ole Schleemann Managing Director, Nordjyllands Trafikselskab Integrated mobility in rural areas. Our approach and experience so far. Ole Schleemann, Managing Director, Nordjyllands Trafikselskab
11:30	12:30	Lunch
12:30	13:10	City presentations: Description of topic that will be presented, and name of the presenter
13:10	14:00	City presentations: Description of topic that will be presented, and name of the presenter
14:00	14:15	Break
14:15	15:45	Open discussion
15:45	16:00	Summary and closing comments

Practical information:
Fee:	The workshop is open for all PTA's, and free for both members and non-members of BEST
Where:	Ruter As, Dronningensgate 40, Oslo (Meeting room "Hovedøya")
Location:
Contact person	BEST Project coordinator Kjetil Vrenne: +47 922 53 471
How to register:	To register click here .

